Lab 1 [20 points] Self Introduction and Introduction to Web

Objectives

- Show your background for better learning experience
- Look up the IP address of websites
- Describe and evaluate a website as a user

Preparation

- Read Chapter 1 of the textbook

What to do

1. [2 points] List the computer related courses that you had before this one.
2. [2 points] Did you have Web development experience? If you have, rate the familiarity level from 1 to 5. 1 as very new to web development, 5 as very experienced in web development.
3. [2 points] Write your reasons to register this course.
4. [2 points] Write three of your expectations from this course.
5. [2 points] Write anything that you want to share with the TA and your instructor.
6. [3 points] Find a tool to lookup the following domain names and record the resulting IP addresses:
   - www.langara.ca
   - www.ubc.ca
   - www.google.ca

7. [7 points] Visit a website that you think is interesting. Answer the following questions.

   a) What is the URL of the website?

   b) What is the purpose of the website?

   c) Who is the intended audience?

   d) Do you think that the website reaches its intended audiences, why?

   e) Is this site appealing to you, why? Consider the use of color, images, multimedia, organization, and ease of navigation.

   f) Would you recommend others to visit this site, Why?

   g) How could this site be improved?

Submission:

Submit your report in a PDF file on Brightspace.